

Random old TIPS from my China Experience

- Download off-line map
- Download off-line translator
- Be sure that you have Chinese keyboard

- You can buy Chinese sim card online
- Write down in Chinese the places you are going to visit
- Write down in Chinese the food you want to eat.
(Not all menus have pictures)

- If you go to Hong-Kong, it is cheaper to travel to Shenzhen
- There are security controls in the underground.
- You can buy any train ticket in any train station
- Learn some Chinese keywords (Hello, thanks, not hot, ...)
- Outside the big cities the people will try to help you
- Outside the big cities the people will be amazed of your western features (be prepared for pictures)

Some of the places I have visited:

- Pingyao
- Xian
- Longmen Grottoes (Luoyang)
- Shaolin Temple
- Zhangjiajie
- Chengdu

- Shanghai
- Suzhou
- Huangshan
- Yaunyang
- Hong Kong